

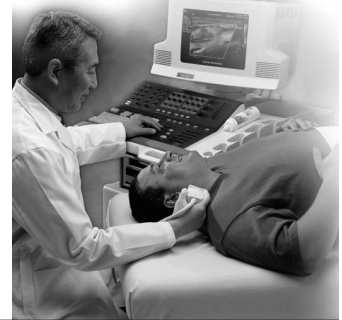

EXHIBITION AND HANDS-ON EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY

Vascular Ultrasound Introductory Interpretation Course

April 18–20, 2008
Wyndham Orlando Resort
Orlando, FL

SVU's Interpretation Courses teach physicians and technologists to recognize what should be included in an examination protocol and differentiate between normal and abnormal B-mode and Doppler findings. The hands-on component of the course has been extremely well received by the attendees, approximately two-thirds of whom are vascular surgeons, cardiologists, and radiologists.

Exhibit Area

Each manufacturer should provide an ultrasound unit and an applications specialist for demonstrations in the exhibit area.

- Application specialists are invited to attend the course at a 10% discount.
- Providing a model is the responsibility of the exhibitor.
- Exhibit fee is $650.

Live Demonstrations and Case Presentations

We are including live demonstrations of testing techniques and principles as part of this educational program. During each clinical session (Cerebrovascular, Renovascular, Peripheral Venous, and Peripheral Arterial) the faculty will present a significant portion of their lecture through a live scan. Our attendees are also interested in seeing PACS or Data Management Systems demonstrated during our Case Presentations. Please consider this opportunity to have your equipment used per clinical segment of the meeting. Lecture points will be made using your equipment and projecting the scans on screen to attendees. The additional cost to your company is $500 for one 30-minute segment.

Case Studies on CD

This sponsorship opportunity lets you put your logo along with SVU's on the CD-ROM containing the Interpretation Course Case Studies. This will be given to each attendee. Sponsorship fee for the Attendee CD is $300.
